“ *To the family,
I would like to extend my heartfelt condolences on the loss of your loved one. The passing of a loved one can leave a person feeling lost and heartbroken. However, the bible is a sure source of comfort for those who have lost loved ones in death. I hope you find comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs or grave will be raised up back to life in perfect conditions free from mourning, outcry, pain, and death (John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:3-5). These are just few of many comforting scriptures. If you would like to know more about how to cope with the loss of your loved one, please feel free to visit www.jw.org.*

“ Aunt Margaret,

*"Angels are watching over you
Wings wrapped gently around you,
Whispering you are loved and blessed."*

You will be missed by all of your family and all who were blessed to know you. We didnt spend much time together but I am truly grateful for the time we did share when you lived in VA. Now you are an angel, free of pain and able to dance as much as you want. See you in heaven when my time comes.

*Love,
Heather*

“ When someone you love becomes a memory, the memory becomes a treasure!

Nothing can replace the loss of our loved one, but Life must go on and sometimes we have to live for others. Just wanted you to know that I am here for support in whatever way I can. I hope knowing that she is at peace will bring you comfort.
