

Margaret I. "Midge" Haje

April 17, 1928 - September 20, 2012

Margaret "Midge" I. Haje, age 84, died peacefully on Thursday, September 20, 2012 with her husband of 62 years by her side. Midge was born in Washington, DC on April 17, 1928. She was a loving wife, caring mother, wonderful grandmother, and friend to many. Midge was a volunteer at the Wilmington Hospital Joint Replacement Center, and loved spending time with her family and visiting the beach.

Midge is survived by her husband and best friend, Thomas K. Haje; her children: Ken Haje and wife Wendy, Linda McCowan and husband Scott, and Paul Haje; her grandchildren: Michael, Stephanie, Jake, Tanis and Caitlin. She was preceded in death by her son, Steve; her parents; and siblings.

A visitation for family and friends will be held on Saturday, September 22, 2012 in Strano & Feeley Family Funeral Home, 635 Churchmans Road, Newark, DE 19702 from 1pm-2pm followed by a service in celebration of Midge's life at 2pm. Burial will be private. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be sent to the Steven Haje Memorial Scholarship Fund Institutional Advancement, McDaniel College, 3 College Hill, Westminster, Maryland 21157. “ To The Family, Please accept my condolence. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time. Let me tell you my favorite text. Job said: “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?”. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.” (Job 14:14, 15).

“ Sitting so far away and remembering our dear Aunt Midge. So many wonderful memories of family vacations in Ocean City, Sunday afternoon tennis tournaments, and lots of laughter with our Auntie! May her memory be a blessing to the Haje and McCowan families at this difficult time, as it is for all of us now and will continue to be in the future. With love and warmest thoughts, Betsy Anthony
