

Mark A. Dubicki

September 4, 1955 - December 12, 2013

Mark A. Dubicki, age 58, of Bear, DE, passed away peacefully on Thursday, December 12, 2013 following a brief illness. An adventurous soul and an alumnus of Glen Cove High, his hometown in New York, he skipped graduation with lifelong friend, David Dictor, to drive through Canada instead. His travels throughout the country eventually led him to Austin, Texas where he resided for a number of years, living the punk rock lifestyle, before settling down in Delaware in his early 30's. He worked as a locomotive engineer for SEPTA for the next 25 years, finally retiring in May of 2013.

Mark was a doting, loving father to the five children he brought into the world. He loved sports (the Eagles were his team of choice), old movies, fantasy football, Broadway, the Grateful Dead in his younger years, and Big Band a little later on in his life. He was a master at the game of cribbage, ranked number two player in the world, a fact he constantly boasted of, often following with a joke that he had too much time on his hands. One of his best qualities was his unwavering loyalty; whether it was his employment at SEPTA, his family, his friends, work out routines, or even a simple lunch date, you could always rely on him to follow through.

Mark is survived by his wife, Marjorie; son, Michael "Jake" Dubicki; 4 daughters: Leigh Anna Bauer (Andrew Klein), Christina "Tina" Dubicki, Morgan Dubicki and Delilah Dubicki; brothers, Alan and Clay Dubicki; sister, Patti Weaver; sister-in-law, Darlene; Zoey Cook - whom he loved dearly; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Friends, acquaintances, and anyone else whose life Mark touched, are invited to visit with the family Tuesday, December 17, 2013 from 2-3 PM in the Strano & Feeley Family Funeral Home, 635 Churchmans Rd., Newark, DE 19702 followed by a memorial service in celebration of Mark's life at 3 PM. “ My prayers and condolences are with Mark's family. I just found out the sad news. I now live in NC, and having retired Jan 31, I was not aware that Mark retired in May. He was always friendly and helpful to his friends, and that was everybody he knew. As a co-worker for so many years, I am grateful for the times he helped me when I got myself into one problem or another. I'm sure I speak for others as well. Mark will definately be missed. May God's blessings and strength rest on his family at this time.

“ I first would like to send my deepest prayers and condolences to Mark's family. My name is Jon Jefferson, and I was a conductor with Mark at Septa Regional Rail for About 10 Years. We were always glad to work together. I remember Mark telling me, "I'm glad you're the Conductor today, at least I know I'll get home on time!" We're all gonna miss you Mark but I'll never forget you my friend. And someday we'll meet again.

With Love & Respect,

Jonathan A. Jefferson
