“ I am so sorry to here your parents past away Nick. You don't no me but I worked with your dad at Sunoco. Your father knew everything about electrical, cars and was a blast to work with. I have to tell you this when my wife pass away suddenly. When it came for the day of the viewing your dad told the boss that this afternoon we are going to my wife's viewing and a fleet of Sunoco trucks pulled up and the whole electric shop was there. I never forgot what Buffy did for me. I will surely miss your dad.

“ What a couple, so much love. I so enjoyed working with both of them at church, and the many hours of sharing Grand kids pictures. I am so sorry for your loss Nick, but they are together. God's blessings.
