“ I always enjoyed talking with Mrs. Cannelongo. She was fun to talk to, and so being around her was a delight. Whatever my mood whenever I ran into her, I was happy afterwards. That's how she affected me and that's how I will remember her.

What a beautiful picture. The resemblance of Regina and Ramona to her is obvious. Three beautiful women in one family.

“ As a young child, my sisters Dottie and Roberta and I would ride in the family car with our mom, Marie, driving from Florida many summers to visit the family. Aunt Mary was always so kind and generous to us, and had an infectious laugh. She is in our prayer, Rest in Peace Aunt Mary. Love, Anita, Randy & family
