“ *To the family,
Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss. I did not know Mrs Singer; but i came across her obituary in the newspaper. She will be greatly missed! I cannot imagine what you are going through to lose such a lovely person, your daughter.
In times like this, the bible is a source of comfort to mourning ones. John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:4 talks about a time when sickness, mourning, outcry, sorrow, and death would be removed completely. A time when Almighty God has promised that he will raise up dead loved ones such as Melody back to life in conditions free from sickness and death.
Yes Almighty God who CANNOT lie has promised to bring this about.
I know that i cannot quench the sorrow you are experiencing; but i do hope that the few words from the scriptures will give you strength to cope with your loss.*

“ *An Irish Funeral Blessing: Longing For One More Day When we lose someone we love it seems that time stands still. What moves through us is a silence... a quiet sadness... A longing for one more day... one more word... one more touch... We may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget. We will see you again some day, in a heavenly place where there is no parting. A place where there are no words that mean good-bye.
Our prayers and thoughts are with all of you. May your many memories be of comfort to you in the days ahead.*

Love, Jim, Denise, Ashley, Daniel, Jeffrey and Connor

“ I'm so very sorry for your loss. I worked with Melody at the hospital and always found her to be sweet and caring. Her eyes lit up when she spoke of her boys. May God's grace be upon her and her children.
