“ Manlove Family,

Mr. Mike drove my daughter's school bus - 89 - last year for her first year at OBL. She was looking forward to seeing him next week. She loved Mr. Mike and enjoyed her time on the school bus. When I told her that he went to heaven and wouldn't be driving her this year she just started reminiscing about funny things they said to each other last year on the bus. You will never know how many lives Mr. Mike touched. Even though I didn't know him well, I am saddened at his loss. My sympathy goes out to your family.

“ Denise and Family, I am Kyle, the blond lady in the waiting room with you. I am so sorry for your loss. My Dad's obit (Norman Willey, the ex-philly eagle) and Mike's were in the same papers. Just wanted you to know that I am thinking of you.

“ I have only known Michael for about 5 months and he was one of the sweetest, kindest men you would have loved to meet. In such a short time he and his wife Denise have touch a special place in my heart. I enjoyed working with you so much and I am truly going to miss you.

“ Mike,

Your death was a complete shock. I knew you for two years, and that was long enough to know that you were a kind, compassionate, intelligent, witty and fun-loving person. I'll miss our conversations about American Idol, your laugh, and your friendship most of all. Every time I see the spot where you parked your bus or see your bus, I'll think of you. It hurts now to think about it, but as the pastor who spoke at my dad's funeral said, "He's happier now than you can imagine, and he doesn't want to come back." Time for us seems to drag on, but we're here so briefly; meanwhile in Heaven, time surely flies by so that it seems like no time at all has passed before the departed see us again. I know I speak for all your friends at Advanced Student Transportation when I say we love and will miss you.
