“ I met a sweet young lady who left an impression on me the day we met. She was kind, funny and so very smart. Her name is Michelle. Whenever someone touches your heart...they permanently become a part of you and although my heart is broken, I still consider myself so lucky to have had the opportunity to meet her. To her beautiful daughters and mother Cindy, to my friends Rob, Gene, Gavin and Shane...and to the family and friends of Michelle that I did not know, I'm so sorry for your loss. My thoughts, prayers of comfort and hugs are with you.

Sorrowfully,

Cyndi Harrison

I am sure those of us who were always at Little Vinnie's knew Michelle so well. She made us laugh, and knew all our needs when we walked in the door. She was always making sure we were all okay and fed well. She also took the time to sit and talk and became our friend. When we spoke privately we shared our troubles, and a hug. It will not be the same coming in those doors, my cup of tea waiting on the table. May God bless you my dear friend, you will be forever missed. My love to Cindy, and Michelle's daughters.
