“ Dear Patty, Kathy, Jim, Larry and family,

We are so sorry for your loss. I am praying for each of you that you will find comfort during this time of grief. I pray that you will sense The LORD's Presence in a great way. Draw close to each other. Everyone has their own way of walking through this difficult time. Allow each other to do it the way they need to. One way to honor your Mother is to be there for each other. May your love for each other grow stronger, because of what you are all going through at this time.
