“ My husband and I met Millie and Jerry while they were building their house in Bechers Brook. We lived a few homes down. The doors weren't put up yet so we thought that meant we were welcome to enter. The next thing we knew here came Mille and Jerry and we couldn't escape fast enough. We have been friends ever since. I have numerous flower arrangements for every season from Millie . Our thoughts and prayers are with the whole family during this sad time. They were very special people to us.

Millie was by marriage, a most hospitable and caring member of our Little family. We enjoyed her company when she and Jerry would visit his uncle, Kirby (and Bernice) Little. She always kept in touch and welcomed our families. Carol and Johnnie Little
