

Nancy Strano-Bonetti

September 27, 1950 - April 30, 2026

Nancy Strano, age 75, passed away peacefully on April 30, 2026.

Nancy was born on September 27, 1950, in South Philadelphia, the daughter of Joseph and Carmela Strano. She was raised with her brother Vincent, with whom she spent many happy childhood hours working in the family-run hoagie shop.

Nancy graduated from Emerson College in Boston. It was at Emerson that Nancy met lifelong friends Barbara Fazio McGrory and Susan McShane. A creative and artistic force, Nancy acted in her early adult years, was a sign language interpreter, florist, and instilled a lifelong love of the arts in those around her. She then spent most of her career as a legal secretary working in Philadelphia, and spent 23 wonderful years at what was then Pepper Hamilton LLP in Philadelphia. Nancy lived in Haddon Township, New Jersey, and was a member of the Unity Church of Christ.

Nancy made many friends wherever she went. She was spirited and engaging and always enjoyed a good time. She loved to dance, was fond of traveling, and enjoyed making stained glass. Nancy loved being a grandmother to Luke and Enzo. She also had a special bond with those in her life with special needs. Nancy was a consummate host and an excellent cook, who honored her heritage with many Italian specialties. The seven fishes feast on Christmas Eve was a favorite. Nancy shared her love for cooking with her son, Gian, and made sure he learned to meet her exacting standards.

Nancy is survived by her loving son, Gian Bonetti, “bonus” daughter Margaret Henn, and beloved grandchildren, Luke and Enzo Bonetti. Nancy was predeceased by her parents and her brother, Vincent Luke Strano.
