“ It was always a better day when I could log into FB and see that sweet precious and always smiling face. I felt like I knew her through the frequent posts made by her mommy and I wish that I could've met her in person. Through her short time here on Earth ,She brought much joy to many people and had a positive impact. I always said that she was a little Warrior . So very sorry she went too soon but she beat many odds. She was so loved and cherished by her family. I will miss seeing the updates and photos of that beautiful, smiling faced little but mighty "Warrior". So very sorry.
