

Philip Edward Saxer Jr.

October 9, 1954 - June 8, 2021

Philip Edward Saxer, Jr., age 66, of Wilmington, DE, went home to be with the Lord after a valiant fight with cancer. Phil loved all animals, but especially horses. He was a respected horse trainer – a job he loved and started at the age of 18. Phil was a jokester and brought lots of joy and laughter to his family and friends. He enjoyed a good cheesesteak and Philly pretzel. His greatest love in life was his cherished family. He was a devoted husband, father, and grandpa who will be forever missed.

Phil is survived by his loving wife, Virginia “Ginny” Saxer; children: Stacy Michaels (Pat), Wendy Correa, Tiffany Peper (Chris), and Tammy Peper (Rico); siblings: Anne Saxer-Stepash (Joseph), Genevieve Saxer-Villon (Alfredo), Wayne Saxer (April), Robert Saxer (Melinda), and Richard Saxer; 10 grandchildren; and 8 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, Anne and Philip Saxer Sr.; and brother and sister-in-law, Edward Saxer (Betty).

A memorial service will be held Friday, June 25, 2021, at 11:30 AM at Pleasantville Baptist Church, 162B Christiana Rd., New Castle, DE 19720 followed by a celebration of life get-together at 1133 12th Ave., Wilmington, DE 19808. Burial will be private. For directions or to send an online condolence visit www.stranofeeley.com
