“ I am saddened to hear of Phil's passing. I went to St Rose's with him and can remember pictures with him in those May processions. We also went to Lincoln Prep together in 65. He was a great guy, I'm sure he was a great husband and father. I'm sorry for your loss.

“Ginger, Charlene, Shelley, Lori, Billy & Grandchildren,

I am so sorry to hear about your great loss of a good Father and Husband. He was a good man and I remember like it was yesterday when you guys lived next door to me and my mom. Phil was always there to help when we needed a hand. He is now in peace and no more suffering up in heaven. I am sure my mom is talking his ears off up there. LOL.... My deepest sympathy, prayers and thoughts are with you and your families.
