“ Cousin Denise regrets to hear about Randy's premature death. I loved his down to earth personality and cool demeanor. I received this bad news 3 days prior to feeling a stirring and dark gloomy feeling in my spirit praying to God. He warned me that there would be surprise deaths. I just beg of all to repent of your sins turn to God with all your heart, mind and soul. It's appointed for man once to die then face the Savior Jesus as Judge of righteousness. One must confess Jesus Christ as Lord. Cultivate a relationship with him by worshipping praising and reading the Bible in order to be in right standing with him. Those that are dead would be resurrected to life again then face the judgement. Amen. Peace, Love and Grace to all

“ Randolph, my dear brother, was a person who enjoyed life as he saw it. Quite content he was with things going merrily along. His favorite past time was being on the computer, joking around and eating. He had ambitious plans for development in the construction industry. He loved visiting Nevis, an island he where he relaxed. The home of his ancestors. When an issue was discussed with him, he hardly ever got flustered. His sudden, peaceful passing will always be remembered. Only a few weeks ago he said, "Sis, I love you!" I replied likewise, "I love you Brother!" May Randolph rest in peace eternal and rise in glory. Sleep on Brother
