“ My wife Karen and I send our deepest sympathies to Jean, Robbie and Michael. I grew up on the next street in P.C. and my brother Wayne was the same age as Bob. Years later we purchased a condo in Stamford, where, to my surprise, Bob and family lived three doors down. He made us feel welcome and always seemed to have the "scoop" about everything going on in the neighborhood. Rest easy Bob and we'll meet up in the next dimension.
