“ Tribute to Robert D Mugo SSP

Whereas culturally you are my brother in law, you are actually a father to me, a true and well deserved title.

In my young age, growing up with your children, I could sense your love and respect which grew stronger with time. I cannot forget the long duration of time I spent in your houses both in Nairobi and Kerugoya enjoying lavish meals (especially the fried meals).

You supported in countless areas but the most memorable is when you signed off as a referee for me to get the first formal employment, a job I have held for more than 30 years now. Upon your relocation to the US, I felt a huge gap as I missed the guidance and wise counsel but as technology improved, we were able to reconnect frequently and I was at peace.

The seed you deposited in me will surely grow and as you rest in glory I know God will take care of the people and things you left behind.

May the Lord keep you closer to Himself till we meet again.

“ May the Lord give the family of Robert peace and comfort at this difficult time. I met Mr. Mugo many years ago at Kenya Airports Police Unit when he was a Deputy Commandant then. I came to know his family as they would come to visit him. He was a very humble person and very godly. May his soul rest in peace.

“ Mr. Mugo was a hero of faith and great mentor. A very strong character and a determined getter. I learned too much from him, among them, there is no age limit to education and service to God and community. His spirit leaves on. May Heaven be his bed forever.

Mr. Robert D Mugo was not only a colleague but my respected boss in the former Kenyan Police Force. Though he did not stay long when I joined before retiring, he made a mark in my life. He is the one who made sure I got a transfer from the dreaded West Pokot where I had been posted upon leaving college to Nairobi. I owe a lot to him for that kind gesture and may he rest in everlasting peace. To mum, Pat, Polly, my class mate Peter in Kerugoya Boys Primary School and later Baricho High School ,Philip and Kariuki, take heart and may almighty God give you strength during this difficult time. Rest in Peace Sir.
