“ So very, very sorry to hear of Ron's passing today. We share fond memories of our Salem High School Class of 1958. His smile was always evident, and from reading of his life, it's easy to see that he lived up to his gifts. Thankful that we were able to spend some time at class reunions in the past. Prayers for the family and for those others Ron touched.

I just learned of Ron's passing and I am truly sorry for your loss. Ron was special. We were freshman together at Rutgers and we had more than one escapade. I remember one Saturday night I stopped by his dorm room and he was going to a party. I asked if I could come and in his usual soft-spoken way he said he did not think it was a good idea. I said fine and for some reason I hung out in his room. Before he left he put a six pack out on the window ledge to chill. I don't remember exactly the circumstances, but I do recall that when he came back he found me asleep in his bed and the beer was gone. And he wasn't even mad. I wrote him a letter a couple of years ago trying to reestablish contact, but I don't think he ever received it because I never heard from him. I wish I had tried harder. I think anyone who ever met him was the better for it. Ron, rest in peace I am sure you earned it. Lin Miller
