“ Hi mom, I don't know if anyone else ever looks at this thing. I find myself looking at this page a lot. I wish I got to know you, I was told you were really good at art and I think you'd be really proud of what I can do and what I've done. I hope one day we can make up for the time we lost.

“ Sandi I didn't even know you moved on from us. I can't believe your not with us. You was a Super Mommy and hope anyone who teaches your children about you finds the words to express how much you loved your babies. I remember you loading up the kids every night just to drive them around the neighborhood just to get'em ready for nighty night. Them kids loved you so much, you had the perfect family. You and your babies. And you was unstoppable. God Bless Your soul Sandra. You will surely be missed by all who knew you.##imported-begin##D. Martin##imported-end##

“ I was so shocked to hear of your passing. Your will be forever in my heart. Words can not explain how sorry I am I was not there to say good bye to the best friend I will ever have. Mr and Mrs Rushon I pray god gives you the strength to get through the loss of your little girl. I to within days of Sandras passing lost my Mother to the same ugly illness your angle was suffering from. Now both your angle and my hero are watching over all of us, they are at peace now. Sandy I will never forget you or the best times of my life shared with you... Thank you.

“ I was truly shocked and upset when I heard of your passing. Growing up with you as the only good looking girl in Feltonville was alot of fun. I have spent the last three days recalling alot of fun times especially when Marky would tell me to stay away from you. I wish I could have been there yesterday, but I am thinking of you and your family at this terrible time. My condolences to Mark, Bill, your parents and especially your children. As a parent myself, our only hope is to leave a lasting impression on our children to ensure their futures. I am sure you did that and they will prosper in the future. Goodbye Sandy, it was great knowing you and I will forever tell my children about the "only good looking girl in an entire neighborhood."##imported-begin##Jeff Cannon Sr.##imported-end##

“ Sis, I miss you so much. We did not have enough time together.
You left us too soon and my heart hurts everytime I think of you.
The only thing that keeps me going is knowing that you are not suffering any more and that you are with god. I miss your funny faces and your funny hats you made for new years. I will miss the pot and pan banging with you. I know you will be happy with god.

“ Our deepest sympathy for the Kane Family. I can remember when the Rushon's first moved to Tampa Street. Sandy was walking down the street with one of her parents and she walked up our step and sat next to my dad and started talking to him. Now she is at peace and not suffering anymore. I know the sadness to on losing someone very close to you. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ My dearest friend Sandi,
I have years of memories with you that have never been forgotten and I will always cherish them. Even though over time we've drifted apart and went our own separate ways I'm still reminded of the good times and great adventures we've had together each time I drive through Newark and New Castle. My heart goes out to your children, your brothers, and your parents. You've made your mark here on this earth and you will never be forgotten by anyone who knew you. I love you Sanders...say hello to Gary for me...Rest In Peace.
