“ My deep condolences on the promotion to glory of your beloved daughter Sharon. I never met her and came to know about her through umzala uNonhlanhla Masoko Madonko. Her humility, as attested to by the glowing tributes from family and friends, is testimony that Heaven was missing an angel and God sent for her. Duduzekani bako Thebe, zihlobo kanye labangane. May the Lord comfort you all at this difficult time. Makalale ngokuthula. Rgds Dorcas Hove

Beautiful rose dearest Sharon MaThebe Mabho!! Called to glory too soon but we give the Lord thanks for the time he afforded us to enjoy life with you. It will never be the same without you. Our songs, our jokes, our laughs and many fond memories we will forever cherish and hold on to. Rest well in the bosom of your creator until we meet again. We know to be absent in the body is to be present with our Lord. May you forever rest in peace. We will forever cherish you in our hearts. Lots of Love Alan, Tryphina, Bethel and Bethany.xxx
