“ I met Steve, his wife Adriene, and his oldest child Ian when they moved here to Buffalo in 1993, next door to my parents house when I was 13. Over the years, I got to know what an awesome husband and father he was to Ian, and to Shannon. He was one of the most talented guitarists ever, always playing a Eric Clapton tune, or anything related to him. In many ways, he taught me how to be a father to my kids, by learning how he took care of his kids. He was a true family man. Adriene, Ian and Shannon, my heart goes out to you guys forever and ever. Steve, you'll always be in my heart, thank you for being one of the coolest neighbors and dads ever, and being the example for me. -Eric.

“ I met Steve in late 89 when I began working at Marine Midland Bank following my release from active duty in the US Navy. It was approximately one month before he and his wife Adriene welcomed their first child. Steve and I maintained a friendship over these past years that had not diminished. He welcomed me into his home and life outside of the office. I can honestly say that because of our work relationship and the support of his direction it catapulted me to another place entirely. A generous man with his time and attention and if you were lucky enough to be on his radar, he wouldn't stare you wrong. Over the course of 32 years we'd done many things together with other like minded friends : Camping, Blue Fishing, Water rafting, etc.. Steve Tedeschi held me in trust from the very beginning and I will forever be humbled by the closeness of our bond. I just hope he knew how much I held him in regard. You touched my life then (1989) and continued to do so when I moved to Delaware (2016). The list of what I will miss in your absence falls short because you'll be missed most of all my friend. Cherished memories everyone. May God rest your soul and uplift your spirit. My sincerest and heartfelt condolences to the Tedeschi Family. Love your forever friend Tim Gilliard (Ft. Myers, FL)

“ Steve and I started out together at Chase in the early 80s. He was a generous and caring person always wiling to help people out. He was a tremendous problem solver with a ton of creativity. I'm so happy that we had the chance to reconnect the past dozen years and share our memories of Chase along with our good friend Brian Jewson, who has also passed on. Christine and I will miss him and he will be in our thoughts and prayers along with Adrienne, Ian and Shannon. Rest in peace brother.

“ I knew Stephen back in our high school years on Long Island. I can still hear him telling a joke or repeating line using a cartoon character's voice. It was followed by a light hearted chuckle which would raise the spirits of the whole group. We lost contact with each other for about 30 years. It took Stephen's dedication to find me and re-connect. Since then I have enjoyed our periodic conversations. He was a great person and will be thoroughly missed. My sympathies to Adriene and his entire family on this sudden loss.

“ Steve and I worked together years ago on a project (OLR 1998) at HSBC. The project was a new wire transfer system that was a huge success. Brances absolutely loved how easy it was to use (one manager said it was the greatest thing since sliced bread). Senior management was impressed calling it "slick". I mentioned this because the success of this project was a direct result of Steve and his vast knowledge. I am sure I tried his patience more than once as he patiently explained wire processing to me and the rest of the team. He often brought humor to the workplace which was much appreciated.

I am a better person for having known him. Rest in peace, Steve.

“ I worked with Steve at HSBC and he was the guy that knew everything. He was always willing to help me out even though I asked a million questions and would make a joke to lighten things up. He was a true family man always sharing stories about them and being sure to ask about mine. You will be missed my friend.

“ One of the best decisions of my career was hiring Stephen to replace me as the then Operations Manager of DMT. Stephen distinguished himself during his long career at HSBC, and I was fortunate to have collaborated with him on many projects over the years.

Stephen loved his family, his job, music and cars. I recall many chats about our favorite guitarist, his Al Di Meola, mine Carlos Santana. I also recall Stephen greeting me with a ride in his Ferrari when I was assigned to DE.

I send my heartfelt condolences to Adrienne and the entire Tedeschi family. May he forever rest in peace.
