“ One of the highlights of going to visit our family in DE was having one of Sue's famous cups of coffee while we caught up! Such a sweet, honest soul. So easy to be with. Always went out of her way to make us feel welcome when we were in town. Though we will carry her in our hearts always and we know she is in a much, much better place, we will miss her warm smile and caring heart immensely!

*Our love and prayers to you Craig, Liz, Caleb and Megan!

“ Mrs. Wolf was such a kind woman. I wasn't around much, but everything I did, she supported and treated me like a child of her own. She's a wonderful woman, and God has a perfect angel. I'm holding the Wolf family in my prayers, I love you all.

“ Craig, we were truly saddened to hear about your loss. Of course we know that Sue is happier and in a better place with her Lord Jesus where there's no more pain, sickness, or tears. But that doesn't make it any easier for you right now, so just know that there are many prayers going up on behalf of the Wolf family.

Elizabeth, Caleb, and Megan - Your mom was one of the greatest people we've had the honor of knowing. She brightened a room when she walked into it. She was beautiful both on the outside and, more importantly, on the inside. Although nothing can take the place of her being here beside you, I can assure you she will be watching you - and smiling - from heaven.

“ Susan, knowing that your light has left this world has broken my heart. Not taking the time to reach out to you to rekindle our friendship after I moved back to town will haunt me as one of my life's greatest regrets. Know that your children and soon to be born grandchild are surrounded by love and prayers, and may that knowledge help you to rest peacefully. Goodbye, sweet girl.
