“ I remember the first time I met my future father in law not even knowing that... He welcomed me with open arms and was very kind and loving. I cherished every minute with him. I grew to love our long talks for hours every night after a 8 to 10 hour shift would find myself going in the room to sit and talk about anything and everything. He accepted me with all my flaws and never judged me for anything that I did. He was a very loving generous man. The best father you could ask for. He told me before he passed that he finally was truly happy with his life he had all he needed. His children and grandchildren around him. His life was complete he couldn't ask for anything more... he will truly be missed 😭 I remember saying once that I was just his daughter in law and he quickly told me wrong I was his second daughter and grew to love me just as much. His life was complete his children were safe and happy. And his kids gave him true happiness and all the wealth in the world by giving him a bunch of beautiful grandchildren and great grandchildren and tons of cherish memories

“ I have so many fond memories of uncle Ted. Teaching me how to shoot a gun, buying me a calf (and then letting me bottle feed it), bike riding while you and mommom went to the casino, ice cream trips with pop snedeker, deer watching at the wildlife refuge...many fun times that I'll never forget. Sometimes, just me and him, and we made the best memories ❤️
