“ I was his hospice nurse. He was a die hard Yankees fan and I an Orioles fan. Last Christmas I had seen him and I saw that there was a Yankees ornament. So I decided to get an Orioles ornament and put it right next to the Yankees one. I would love to have seen the look on his face may he turned his head to the tree and saw the Orioles ornament next to his. I think he called me or I had called to let them know I was coming and he's like I got a bone to pick with you I could do nothing but laugh. He will be greatly missed

I met Tom through his parents. Heard he was having stomach issues, so I started making soups for him. One night he came to dinner with his parents. He was looking all Hollywood with his sunglasses and Yankees clothing. And my Tres leches cake! He would dive into in the wee hours of the morning. Will miss you, my friend. xoxoxo
