I've had the pleasure of knowing and loving this wonderful family most of my life. I fondly remember Tom giving me permission to build my cabin at camp and showing me where I could build it. I remember Tom working on his tractor with Thomas on his knee. He was a wonderful loving man with Jesus always as his guide.

“ We have many fond memories of family camp and mission moments with the Wetzels. There was always lots of laughter and no doubt about joy in serving Jesus and others. Heaven is richer for Tom's presence there. Our condolences to Muriel and her family. Sorry we cannot be physically present, but will be with you in prayer. Jonathan & Rondalyn Merki
