“ My sincere condolences to family and friends. Trudy aka Ladybug was my name for her, was my dear friend who I met her at The Village of St.John. Her personality and spirit was one of a kind. Feisty and full of life and an advocate for those who others would look down upon. Trudy loved everyone and was eager to help if she could. Ladybug, we shared many memories and secrets about our lives and laughed about silly things until we cried. We talked about our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She loved Jesus and let her light shine for him. You fought a good fight friend and vowed to hold on as long as you could for your grandbabies. I will miss you Ladybug, but your light will never dim in my heart and beautiful memories we shared shine eternally. RIP friend ❤️❤️❤️
