“ Dear Carol and family, Mine, Ray's and Donna's heart goes out to you all. I've known U.C. Dash just about all my 33 years as a christian. We were Sunday school teachers together. He was the teacher and I was his assistant :) I really loved him and all of you. I loved his powerful voice. I got to see Brother Dash at wilm.church of God a few months back at a homecoming Sunday. Well, he's home now for sure. I pray that you can all be comforted in knowing he suffered enough down here and we'll meet with him again one day soon. We can hug his neck real good then. may God give you all peace until then, we love you. Dianne, Donna and Raymond##imported-begin##dianne c. leifheit(Sturgeon)##imported-end##

“ Dear Mrs. Dash and Family,
My sincere condolences on the passing of Mr. Dash. He was a kind man and we always enjoyed his visits. Caring for him was an opportunity that I will always be thankful to have had.
You are in our prayers.
Sincerely,

“ What a tragedy to lose such a nice man. I never heard a bad thing come out of his mouth and knew we could always count on him if we needed help (he always knew the right tool to use, and exactly how to use it!!!). The street surely won't be the same without him. Love, Pat and John###imported-begin###Pat and John Collins###imported-end##
