“ *Aunt Sherry, Joy Renee, Robin, George, Steven, I'm so sorry about Uncle Bill's passing. He gave it all he had til the end. He was a strong and loving person and I can just see him and my Papaw having a good time in heaven. A beautiful place where they are in no more pain. I'm sorry that I couldn't be there for you all today but you all are in my prayers today and always. With love,

“ To my wonderful friend Joy--You will never have any regrets, be thankful for the time you got to be w/ your dad, they were the best years of his life. So many memories you can keep close to your heart.

To mom--I love you very much too and just know I am thinking of you alot. I know how hard it has to be for you but you hang in there. Pop always made me laugh no matter how bad he was feeling. He is one of the strongest men I know and I am glad to have met him. Love ya very much Pop--see you again some day.##imported-begin##Olga Adkins##imported-end##
