

William "Billy" F. Bradigan Jr.

May 4, 1993 - July 27, 2023

William "Billy" Francis Bradigan Jr., age 30, departed this world and entered the spirit realm on July 27, 2023 at Christiana Hospital. He was surrounded by his loving family. Billy was born to parents, Patricia Vietri and Willian F. Bradigan Sr. on May 4, 1993 in Wilmington, Delaware. Billy worked in the flooring and carpentry business, a trade he learned from his father.

Billy had a huge personality and was loved by everyone who knew him. He unapologetically marched to the beat of his own drum, and inspired others to do the same. Billy was resilient, creative, loyal, brutally honest, witty, funny, charismatic, loving, compassionate, and a headstrong Taurus to his core. Billy loved shopping, fashion, having fun, making people laugh, animals, pride events, cooking, nature, taking racy photos, music and dancing. He enjoyed Chicago Bulls attire, tacos, watching "The Golden Girls", and being around his friends and family. Billy was truly a unique soul that lit up every room he entered. He touched the lives of everyone who met him, and he will be missed.

Billy is survived by his father, William F. Bradigan Sr.; his sister, Angela J. DiGiacomo; his brother, Jesse Rawding; his grandparents, Walter and Susan Grier; his aunts: Erin Bradigan, Tracy Smith, and Lara Wereszenski; Kurt Taylor, who Billy lovingly referred to as Mom; his cousins, Brittany and Chad; and a host of other family and friends.

Billy was preceded in death by his mother, Patricia Vietri; his brother, Angelo DiGiacomo; his grandparents, Carol and John Hayden; his great grandmother, Carol Strickland; his grandfather, William Louis Bradigan; and his aunt, Betty Smack.

“ My sweet nephew...I will hold on to all my memories of you hanging at my house, your adventures with Brittany & your immense love of cats (& especially that one weird dog with the skin infection). I loved your resilience & your quirky sense of humor. I love you forever. ❤️
